FIGHTING AND INCENDIARISM MAKE BELFAST 'TERROR CITY'

Ten Killed In Streets As Rival Factions Fight

TEN ARE KILLED

Bomb Thrown At Tram; Citizens Panic Stricken

(Reuter's Service)

London, June 1.—Fierce fighting and incendiarism turned Belfast into a city of terror last night. It is already known to have claimed 25 victims, of whom 10 were killed.

The firing continues and the troops are out machine gunning. The center of the operations is the millfield area, where the outbreak started with gunmen unprovokedly shooting a special constable and then another who came to the rescue.

On police reinforcements hurrying to the spot, a desperate battle ensued, which was intensified on the arrival of troops. The crowd in the meantime, burned houses, which were gutted while the police and military were duelling with snipers. A bomb flung at tramcar fortunately missed. The citizens are panic stricken.

London, May 31.—In spite of the Derby, the House of Commons was crowded today on the occasion of the Irish debate. Viscount Fitzalan, Lord Birkenhead and Messrs. Collins, Griffith and Duggan were present in the galleries.

Mr. Winston Churchill said that the consequences of the Collins-de Valera compact were most serious It was probable that the Irish would not be able freely to express their views on the Treaty at the election.

The Parliament, resulting from this, would be arbitrarily divided on the supreme issue of the establishment of a Republic.

The Government was in no way disposed to relax its vigilance or responsibility in regard to the faithful carrying out of the Treaty

The provision in the compact including four anti-Treaty ministers in the new Government struck directly at the Treaty. If the four were willing to sign a bona fide declaration of adherence to the Treaty, the Imperial Government would have no ground for complaint.

If not, then the Treaty would be broken and the Imperal Government would resume liberty of action with regard to the resumption of transferred powers or the reoccupation of territory.

Mr. Churchill declared that the Provisional Government's explanation of anarchy in Ireland as the reason for entering the compact showed how low the civic courage and manhood of Ireland had fallen.

After referring to the grave effect of the compact on Ulster. Mr. Churchill said that the Provisional Government had kept its promise in submitting the draft Free State Constitution to the Imperial Government.

It had been examined by the British signatories of the Treaty and would be published after Whitsun, enabling the House to judge whether it conformed to the Treaty.

Mr. Churchill concluded by expressing his confidence that the members of the Provisional Government were not acting in bad faith or with the intention of betraying British confidence and Ireland's name.

He believed that they were resolved to carry out the Treaty but was doubtful whether their policy would succeed. The Imperial Government, he asserted had at least done its part loyally.

London, May 31.—Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, announced today in the Northern Parliament that he had accepted the British Government's invitation to go to London tonight to discuss the future situation, on the distinct understanding, however, that he would not be asked to meet the South Irish delegates.

London, May 31.—It is officially intimated from Belfast that 1,000 Sinn Feiners from South Ireland are concentrating in the vicinity of the Ulster border from Castlefin to Clady, where they have commandeered houses, apparently with Strabane and Derry as their objectives.

Property Confiscation In Urga Kills All Business

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, May 31.—Business in Urga is dead, killed by the order of the People's Revolutionary Government of Mongolia, which confiscated the property of Chinese, Russian and American merchants, and was designed to bring into Urga the principles of Sovietism that have been practiced by the Moscow Government. Firms are being forced to abandon the field of business that looked fair and promising a few months ago; the Russian merchants have received no support from their authorities in the city; the Chinese merchants have protested but in vain; and American firms are withdrawing entirely, hoping to return when some turn of the wheel shall have made things possible for business to go on.

In all of this it is the Chinese Government that is placed in perhaps the most difficult position, and there is considerable anxiety in government circles because of the fact that China may be held responsible for the actions of a Government that is still recognised as being a part of the Chinese Republic by foreign powers. The Mongolian Republic has been recognised by but one country: Soviet Russia. through whose help the forces of Baron Ungern were driven out and the Republic declared. But in the eyes of the rest of the world Mongolia is still a part of China, and the Chinese government is responsible for the lives and property of foreigners according to the treaties. Much interest is therefore expressed in what may be the results of this action of the Mongolian Government.

LEASES FOR DEEDS

The order has been issued to the effect that all persons who own property in Urga must present the title deeds to the Government, and in return for these deeds the Government will issue thirty-years leases with a certain rental rate. The Government reserves the right to tax the property at the present rate of interest and at a higher rate if the property increases in value, thus increase in value of the property itself or improvements put in by the lessee will be the subject of taxation by the Government. The right is also reserved to change the rental terms every five years and so prevent any unearned increment accruing to the lessee.

The result of this action is to put the control of all property in the hands of the Government, with no apparent benefit to any save to the Government itself. All merchants in the town have united to protest the measure, but their protests have been in vain. The American firms, who hold the largest properties in the town, hold their title deeds from Russian owners and it is not known whether or not the Government records are in existence, because of the distruction of the office in which they were kept. The Chinese apparently are not owners of their holdings, they are rather permitted to do business, since their title deeds were called in by the Government after the declaration of the autonomy of Mongolia and these permits issued in their place. The Russians will be the largest losers, being those who carry on the greatest amount of business.

That the Mongolian Government is not the originator of this communistic plan, but rather the Soviet "advisors" and officials in Urga, is generally admitted in Chinese circles. It is reported that the Russian consul in Urga would do nothing to support the claims of his nationals when they protested against the confiscation of their

OPEN VERDICT RETURNED IN BROOKS INQUEST

Coroner's Jury Is Unable To Determine Cause Of Death

An open verdict was returned yesterday before U. S. Commissioner F. J. Schuhl by the coroner's jury which conducted the inquiry into the death of Arthur Brooks, whose body was found in a vacant lot off Chaofoong Road last Sunday morning. As a result of the inquest, one of the witnesses, George Donack, was held for trial in the United States Court on a charge of vagrancy, and a second, Joseph Green, was ordered to leave Shanghai within two weeks.

Testimony was given by Detective Inspector Cruikshanks, Detective Sergeant Quayle and Sergeant McDonald regarding the finding of the body. All declared that the body had been hastily dressed and in their opinion had been carried to the lot where it was found.

Dr. Julian Petit testified that Brooks had apparently been dead two days and that an examination had shown no cause of death. A post mortem examination still is being conducted.

Green, who lives in the Way port Rooms, said that he had heard that Brooks had died "in a joint" the night before the body was found. Donack, another unemployed seaman, admitted that he was a drug addict but denied giving any drugs to Brooks. The deceased was a heavy drinker of samshui, he said and was drunk most of the time. Both Green and Donack admitted that they had worked little since coming to Shanghai.

MANCHURIA GARRISONS DECLARE FOR GEN. WU PEI-FU

Returning Soldiers Refuse To Re-Enlist, Report

TOKIO'S STAND

Would Welcome Wu Same As Chang, Is Statement

BY JOSEF W. HALL
Staff Correspondent the China Press

Peking, June 1.—Advices from Harbin say that the Chinese garrisons along the entire Chinese Eastern railway have declared for Wu Pei-fu. In Harbin popular sentiment for Wu is very strong.

Whether Chang Tso-lin will be eliminated by his own people is now apparently dependent upon the attitude of Wu Chun-seng, appointee to the Tuchunship of Fengtien. It is believed he still favors Chang.

Chang has sent 7,000 men in the direction of Harbin, but it is not believed they will fight. The drift against Chang grows as the defeated Fengtien soldiers return to their homes, all efforts to induce them to re-enlist having proved failures so far.

Wang Chen-ping, who is now under orders from Wu to take over all of Manchuria, will in all probability succeed to the leadership of the three Eastern provinces.

The Japanese legation in Peking says Japan would welcome Wu in Manchuria in the same way that Chang has been welcomed, and the Japanese officials who recently visited Wu at Loyang were very friendly. It is thought here that the Japanese declaration of intention to remove the Japanese garrison at Hankow is a friendly gesture toward Wu.

Upward of 3,000 Japanese troops are moving from Dairen through Mukden, but are pledged to confine their efforts solely to the protection of the South Manchurian railway zone.

When You Get On A Tramcar, Get On!

The straphanger at heart can no longer find an opportunity for exercising his talents in Shanghai. He who is at his best when he elbows and pushes and clutches and claws and finally manages by some freak working of the laws of gravity to maintain a precarious balance over the sides of a tramcar now finds the heavy hand of the law upon him.

Witness a scene yesterday in the Mixed Court before Assessor Jacobs and Magistrate Loh, when a Chinese was given a two day jail sentence. His offense consisted in riding on the foot board of a tram car. Mr. H. N. Muir, safety and publicity superintendent for the tramway company, who appeared to prosecute on behalf of the company, called the attention of the court to an announcement by the Municipal Council that Traffic Regulation No. 32, which provides that 'no persons shall stand or sit on or otherwise occupy the footboard of a vehicle in motion on a highway" was hereafter to be enforced rigidly.

It was the first prosecution and the first conviction on record in the Mixed Court in connection with an offense of this kind.

NANKING SAILS FOR U.S. TODAY; RUSSIA IS DUE

Three Liners To Leave For America Within Few Days

The China Mail Steamship Nanking is due to arrive at Woosung from Hongkong this morning and will be despatched for San Francisco via Yokohama and Honolulu this evening, according to announcement made by the local offices of the company. The tender with incoming passengers, baggage and mail is expected to arrive at the Customs Jetty at about 9:30 a.m. The outgoing tender will leave at 4:30 p.m. The Nanking is due to arrive at San Francisco on the morning of June 24th.

A slight delay has been occasioned in the arrival here of the Canadian Pacific Steamships' liner Empress of Russia because of the fog, and the vessel is now due off Woosung at 4 p.m. this afternoon.

The Empress will sail at noon tomorrow for Manila and Hongkong. The tender Alexandra, with incoming passengers is expected at the jetty at about 6:30 p.m. today and the outgoing passengers and hand baggage will leave the Customs Jetty at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow. Hand baggage should be on board the tender at 9:15 a.m. The original announcement stated that the tender with outbound passengers would leave the jetty at 3:30 p.m. today.

In addition to the Nanking, two other liners will leave Shanghai for America within the next few days. The T. K. K. liner Shinyo Maru is due out today for San Francisco, and the President Grant, formerly the Pine Tree State, of the Admiral Line, will sail for Seattle early Monday. The President Grant is expected to arrive from Hongkong late Saturday and will dock at the China Merchants' Lower Wharf. It will sail at 6 o'clock Monday morning and is due to arrive in Seattle, by way of Kobe and Yokohama, on June 20.

Following the President Grant, the next sailing for America is the Empress of Canada, the latest addition to the Canadian Pacific fleet. The Canada arrived at Hongkong at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning and is due to sail from Shanghai for Vancouver by way of Yokohama only on June 9.

The Pacific Mail Steamer President Lincoln, formerly the Hoosier State, is due to arrive in Shanghai from San Francisco, Honolulu and Japan ports late today or early tomorrow and will dock at the China Merchants' Central Wharf.

Mails for Europe will be dispatched today on the P. and O. liner Khyber. They close at 10 a.m. for ordinary matter and 9:30 for registered. The tender with outbound passengers and baggage will leave the Customs Jetty at 11 a.m.

FOREIGN YOUTH DROWNS WHILE MATES LOOK ON

Adam Kahn, 20, Loses Life While Swimming In Chapei Pool

The first fatality of the swimming season near Shanghai was recorded Wednesday in the death of Adam Kahn, a twenty-year old British youth living at 20 Jukong Road, who drowned while swimming in a pond off Kiangwan Road in Chapei.

Kahn was a student at St. Xavier's School, and had gone to the pond with a number of his schoolmates. He was suddenly seized with a cramp, and disappeared twice beneath the surface of the water. His companions failed to realise that he was in distress, believing that he was playing tricks as he had been doing earlier in the afternoon. They failed to go to his aid until he sank for the third time. After diving several times and failing to recover Kahn's body, they called the police. Chinese recovered the body two hours later. Funeral arrangements are still pending.

PRESIDENT SAYS HE WILL QUIT 'AT PROPER MOMENT'

Old Hsu Gives Assurances To Representatives Of Wu

BY JOSEF W. HALL
Staff Correspondent the China Press

Peking, June 1.—Wang Shih-chen assumed the premiership today, acting as chairman of the cabinet meeting. The cabinet, in accordance with the formality of resigning en bloc, will be remandated immediately, practically as it now stands.

President Hsu Shih-chang has given pledges to representatives of General Wu Pei-fu that he will retire gracefully at any moment his getting out will aid reunification and reconstruction.

Plans are now under way for bringing about the succession of Li Yuan-hung without interregnum, and without making Hsu's regime unconstitutional, which, aside from causing unnecessary opposition through loss of face would cause bothersome red tape difficulties in international relationships.

The rapid assembly of parliament at Tientsin would greatly assist matters and this is hoped for by all parties. The speakers of both houses with a considerable nucleus, are already in Tientsin.

(Reuter's Service)

Peking, June 1.—Important political developments are progressing today principally as a result of the visit to Paoting of Mr. Wang Chia-hsian, President of the Old Senate, and Mr. Wu Ching-lien, Speaker of the Old House of Representatives, who returned to Tientsin yesterday after conferences with General Wu Pei-fu and General Tsao Kun. This morning upwards of 150 members of the Old Parliament went to Tientsin from Peking. Prior to leaving they stated that General Wu Pei-fu had given a hint as to what was expected of the Old Parliament with regard to reconvocation and the Presidency, it is stated that they will attend the first session this afternoon at which ex-President Li Yuan-hung will be reinstated as Chief Executive. Subsequently ex-President Li Yuan-hung and the members of Parliament will come to Peking. President Hsu Shih-chang despatched a circular telegram to the provinces yesterday saying that he was ready to retire immediately if such course meet with public approval. The Cabinet met this morning. It is reported that they considered the resignation of the President and decided not to accept it at present but to wait for developments in Tientsin. If ex-President Li Yuan-hung is reinstated according to the program, the President's resignation will forthwith be announced. Extra guards are being stationed along the railway between Peking and Tientsin apparently in anticipation of the passage of important personages. Meanwhile the appointment of

Petition For Rehearing Denied By California Appellate Court

QUESTION RAISED

Attorney Involved Says Stay Of Execution Has Been Granted

Another chapter in the celebrated case which has interrupted activities of the United States Court for China for nearly a year—the Fleming case—was opened yesterday. The latest development, following action that has been taken recently in the California federal Court of Appeals, is that the case is being taken into the highest American tribunal, the United States Supreme Court.

That the case would ultimately be taken to the United States Supreme Court was foreshadowed some months ago by Mr. Fleming when the California Appellate Court, ruling adversely to him, upheld a judgment pronounced by Judge C. S. Lobingier by the terms of which Mr. Fleming was sentenced to serve six months' imprisonment for contempt of court.

After this judgment was upheld by the Appellate Court the opening move to take the case into the Supreme Court was made when Mr. Fleming's attorney, Mr. Garrett W. McEnerney, filed a petition for a rehearing of the case before the Appellate Court.

PETITION DENIED

According to word received here yesterday the Appellate Court ruled on the petition for rehearing of the case on May 8 and denied it. The measures to take the case into the highest court then were taken.

The Fleming case, so-called, grew out of a hearing before Judge C. S. Lobingier in the United States Court for China that was opened in July of last year. At this hearing Mr. Fleming was called to answer charges of criminal libel that had been made against him by Mr. Stirling Fessenden while similar charges made against him by other complainants also were pending.

When the hearing opened Mr. Fleming electrified the court room by reading a lengthy detailed affidavit in the course of which he made a whole series of charges, not the least of which was conspiracy, against Judge Lobingier and involving also virtually every officer of the court.

This brought an abrupt end to the hearing of the criminal libel case as Mr. Fleming was held forthwith to be guilty of contempt of court. Though certain technicalities were raised Judge Lobingier imposed a sentence of six months' imprisonment and Mr. Fleming was taken into custody. In the course of the next two weeks while Mr. Fleming was being held Judge Lobingier admitted him to bail pending an appeal from the judgment and he was released.

While the appeal was being carried through the higher California tribunal charges against Judge Lobingier were filed with the State Department at Washington by Mr. Fleming. Judge Lobingier proceeded to Washington last summer and he was followed there within a space of days by Mr. Fleming.

DECISION AWARDED

It is known here that a full hearing of the charges against Judge Lobingier was held some months ago and while from time to time various reports and rumors have been circulated in Shanghai concerning action that has been or may be taken with the case, no definite announcement has yet been made public in Washington.

Some weeks ago it became known that Judge Lobingier had started back to Shanghai and it was learned that he was on the eve of taking steamer at Seattle when he turned back and returned to Washington. Since then official announcement in connection with the charges that were made against him has been looked for daily.

Mr. Leonard G. Husar, who has just assumed the post of United States District Attorney for China, succeeding Maj. C. P. Holcomb received yesterday from the clerk of the California Appellate Court the formal notice that Mr. Fleming's petition for rehearing of his case had been denied. If no further action were being taken in the case this notice would be followed in the course of the next several days by the mandate of the Appellate Court which would carry into immediate effect the penalty imposed on Mr. Fleming.

It has been held also that the possibility exists that even though the case is being taken to the Supreme Court on Appeal the mandate still may be issued by the Appellate Court and under it Mr. Fleming may be called on to surrender himself and begin service of the sentence imposed while the case is being presented to the Supreme Court.

Mr. Fleming himself said last night, however, that the day after his petition for rehearing was denied his attorney, in filing further appeal to the United States Supreme Court, at the same time obtained from the Appellate Court stay of the mandate, and such action has the effect of postponing any further action in the case until it has been acted upon by the United States Supreme Court.

atrocities, destroying iron bridges near Changli and firing upon military trains of the Powers. In consequence, the Japanese commandant at Tientsin has given a strict warning to the troops, the district of Changei being within the defensive sphere of the Japanese garrison.

Manchuria Torn By Mutiny, Report

(Chung Mei Service)

Peking, May 29.—From every side come reports of mutinies in Manchuria gainst Chang Tso-lin and indications are that at the present moment that section is in the throes of what may be termed a civil war. Chang Tso-lin is rushing reinforcements to various places where there have been uprisings against him and is making a determined effort to maintain his control. The evidence on the surface would be that the Central government is obtaining by internal action the defeat of the independence movement avoiding the necessity of a frontal attack.

It is an interesting test of whether an official shorn of his legal powers and failing in his prestige can continue to exist by virtue of the discipline of his soldiers. All along the zone of the Chinese Eastern Railway statements are made to the effect that the troops have gone over to the side of Wu Pei-fu and are busily disarming those who remain loyal to Chang. There have been scores of reports of mutinies which are said to be spreading.

According to high officials and foreign observers it is absolutely imperative for Chang to return to Harbin and take command in person of the situation if he is to maintain his authority. General Wu Pei-fu remarked a week ago at Paoting that there was a force now in Manchuria "which will cause the down fall of China Tso-lin." At the time he would make no further statement. but it is now presumed that he was relying upon this internal dissention to remove the necessity for forcing Chang back by direct attack.

STILL HOLDING PLACE

The fact remains however that Chang Tso-lin has not yet been disposed of and that although there are mutinies Chang is still on top and trying to surpress them, leaving the independence of Manchuria still an open question. It is believed that this independence is so much against the wishes of the Chinese nation, including Manchuria herself, that Chang will be forced under eventually from sheer weight of the sentiment against him.

The 27th division of Fengtien troops is known to have mutinied. Chang sent up his crack 28th division to restore reason to the mutineers.

The Harborask Government is reported to have sent diplomatic representatives to Mukden to treat with Chang Tso-lin concerning his new kingdom or republic, just which they have not yet learned.

Chinese Press Telegrams On The Situation

The Fengtien troops have arrived at Changli and destroyed bridges No. 80 and No. 81.

A report has been received in Legation circles that there was a clash between the Chihli and Fengtien troops on May 29.

Chang Tso-lin has caused 90 guns to be mounted on various strategic positions on the Great Wall.

Commander Kao Sze-pin occupied Harbin on the May 29. He issued a proclamation declaring that foreign lives and property will be protected, and that it is a political necessity to eliminate the influence of Chang Tso-lin.

There are 30,000 Fengtien troops between Shanhaikwan and Kinchow, and 10,000 Fengtien troops at Changli.

The Fengtien troops have arrested a number of persons charged as would-be assasins sent out by the Chihli party. Three persons have been shot.

A telegram from Tokio says that the British and American Governments have proposed to the Japanese Government that Wu Pei-fu be given political and economic support on the ground that, comparatively speaking, he wields predominant influence and has thus better prospects for stabilising the situation in China. The report says that the Tokio Government has expressed its willingness to act on this suggestion.

Hsu Shih-chang, the Peking President, has expressed the opinion that he will be prepared to retire provided his retirement will be followed by the reunification of the country.

Chiang Chao-tsung, a party friend of General Wang Shih-chen, will enter the cabinet as Minister of Education. The mandate announcing the personnel of the new cabinet will be issued Thursday.

At the cabinet meeting held yesterday it was decided that the wireless stations of the country will come under the control of the Ministry of Navy. It was also decided to appoint a sub-customs station at Weihaiwei subject to the jurisdiction of the Custom authorities at Chefoo and to appoint a Customs superintendent for Tsingtao.

A proposal has been made for the reorganisation of the Bank of Communications by converting it into a pure commercial venture and with the exception of the offices of the bank at Peking, Tientsin, Shanghai, and Hankow, the other branches will be closed. In case the proposal materialises, the Bank of China will be the only bank that will handle the national revenue.

With effect from the 1st of August there will be issued to the public a special kind of stamp tax stamps to be affixed on legal documents. These stamps will be on sale at the Chinese Post Office.

Dr. Wellington Koo said he would return to London to resume his duties as China's Minister to the Court of St. James in the Autumn.

The organisation bureau of the reconvention of the Old Parliament at Tientsin is in receipt of private intimations of the M.P.'s at Shanghai and Tientsin that a considerable number of the conscientious M.P.'s the Old Parliament would refuse to come forward to take part in the reconvention of the Old Parliament at Peking oh the ground that the reconvention will take place under the influence of the dictatorship of the militarists.

It has been suggested to Wu Pei-fu that he should personally proceed to Kiangsi to direct the reinforcements but Wu holds that the situation in Kiangsi is not important enough for him to do so. Tsai Cheng-hsun is urged by Wu to march his reinforcement troops to Kiangsi. Tsai insists on being provided with funds before he starts.

Turks Accused Of Cruelty To Greeks

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—In answer to questions in the House of Commons today, Mr. Cecil Harmsworth, Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, said that a report had been received from independent witnesses who had just left Trebizond showing that the Turks were still committing acts of great barbarity in the Trebizond district against the surviving Greeks.

It is reported, he said, that even little Greek boys had been collected into compounds and allowed to die from starvation. Mr. Harmsworth declared that the Government was doing its utmost to accelerate the dispatch of the commission of enquiry but that no further action could be taken until a reply had been received from the United States which he hoped would be today or tomorrow.

RED TROOPS PRESENT

The local press carries a story of a Chinese delegate sent to discuss the whole Mongolian question with Soviet Government in Moscow. The dealings of the Moscow Government which has simultaneously declared its intention of returning Mongolia to the Chinese Republic and its support of the Mongolian republic will be discussed. At the present moment there are in Urga some eleven hundred of the Soviet troops, sufficient to keep control of the city. Nearly one thousand miles further to the west at Kabdul more Russian troops have been sent, and thus render harmless the strong feeling against the Mongolian Peoples Revolutionary Government; other troops are stationed at Uliassitai seven hundred miles west of Urga.

In Urga while the Mongolian Government is supposed to be supreme it is admitted that the Russian advisors who have taken care not to assume any responsibility for originating any programs are the persons who really direct the policy of the state. It has also been reported on previous occasions in the local press that all the customs officials, in whose hands control of the trade and thus the heart of Urga naturally falls, are all Russians.

At the present time, the Chinese Government is negotiating with the Mongolian Government for the opening of telegraphic communications between Kalgan and Urga, and there is a movement on foot to have the postal communications reopened. In the meantime the curious situation obtains of an autonomous Mongolia, unrecognised by the Chinese Government, but with whom China is negotiating with regards to telegraph communications, at the same time she is negotiating with Russia for the return of Mongolia. And Chang Tso-lin has declared that Mongolia, in addition to Manchuria is independent. And the foreign powers look on Mongolia as a part of China.

And China is worried because she may have to foot the bills for damages caused by the government which is considered as a part of her, and which she cannot in the slightest control.

King Contract Void, Mr. Israel Testifies

Agreement Was Cancelled, Former Secretary Of Shanghai Life Insurance Declares On Witness Stand

Testimony that an agreement under which the Shanghai Life Insurance Company was to pay the late King Chun-kee a commission on its premium income had existed but had been cancelled was given by Mr. Arthur J. Israel yesterday in the British Supreme Court before His Honor Judge Peter Grain in connection with the suit which King's widow has brought to recover the two and one-half percent commission on the company's business for ten years.

Mr. Israel's testimony, which occupied the greater part of yesterday's sessions of the court, took up in detail his relations with the company, the organisation and operations of the China Realty Company, and the work done by King for the insurance company. He declared that it was not until 1917, after the death of King, that he had heard any mention of a commission agreement between the company and King. The first hint that such an agreement might have existed came in a letter from Messrs. Teesdale and Godfrey, representing the widow, which he received as secretary of the company.

"I spoke of the letter to Mr. Parker," he testified, "And I learned from him that such an agreement had existed but had been cancelled. He showed me the minute, and I went to see Mr. Godfrey. I told him the contract was cancelled, and the widow had found it among the husband's effects and did not understand it. He said that he would communicate with his client. Then came another letter stating that his client insisted on a statement and if not, the claim would be made the next day. I saw Mr. Godfrey again and showed him the proofs and the records so as to persuade him that his client had no claim against the company.

THOUGHT MATTER DROPPED

"I suggested to him that if his client did not drop the case it would be better to arbitrate, as it would be very damaging to the life insurance company's business if the case was published in the papers. I thought it might be interpreted by people who did not understand as reflecting on the stability of the company. I did not hear any more about the matter afterwards. When I entered into negotiations with the China Mutual Insurance Company I had no reason to suppose that proceedings of this nature would be instituted."

Mr. R. W. Skinner, secretary of the China Land and Finance Company, was the first witness to take the stand yesterday. Under questioning by Mr. Duncan McNeill, who appeared for the defendants, Mr. Skinner said that he had made a search of the books to see if salary had been paid to Mr. King. He had looked from 1903 to 1911. He was paid Tls. 250 from January, 1903 to June, 1905. There were no later payments. There was a minute that Mr. King left the board of the company in June, 1905. Later, four payments were made of commission on sales of land. In 1908, Mr. King resigned from the board, having disposed of his shares.

MR. ISRAEL'S TESTIMONY

Mr. Israel, on direct examination testified that he was a director of the Shanghai Life Insurance Company, as were Mr. A. W. Burkill, Mr. C. R. Burkill, Mr. R. G. McDonald, and Mr. E. T. Zurn. He had joined the firm in July, 1905 as manager of a branch which was called the "Industrial Branch." He gradually took up general work, and in 1908 was appointed secretary and in 1910 a director of the company. He was secretary continuously from 1908 until 1920, when the company was taken over by the China Mutual Life Insurance Company and he resigned the secretary.

Do you remember King's leaving the Company?—He ceased to come round. I was not in close contact with him when he left. I remember King being there when I came. I remember a year after not seeing him round.

Did you at that time know of the existence of this agreement?—No.

Did you know any reason for his not coming round?—I understood there was some misunderstanding or disagreement.

Did you know what he did after he ceased to come round?—I understood that he went to the China Mutual Life Insurance Company. I do not know much about it. I remember his not coming round.

Has your search revealed vouchers signed for money borrowed?—Yes. Money was advanced on vouchers for cash proxies during 1909 and 1910.

Do you remember King coming back?—In 1908. He came from the China Land and Finance Company.

Did you see much of him after he had come back in 1908?—I saw him every day. It was at this time that I became Secretary.

CHINA REALTY COMPANY

As Secretary were you aware of the advances made by the Shanghai Life Insurance Company to people who wished to borrow money?—I was aware of it.

We have heard about the establishment of the China Realty Company. It was after King had come back. Will you tell his Lordship all about it?—The China Realty was a Company organised to deal in real estate. It was started by Mr. Raven, who at that time had a real estate company of his own, and Mr. Parker and myself, who was also operating small estate companies. The Raven Company was organised under the Hongkong Ordinance. This Company was independent of the Shanghai Life and had no real connection with the Shanghai Life except that the two companies worked together as regards valuation, mortgages of properties, collection of interest and such other matters where the Realty Company would render its services to the Shanghai Life in connection with loans.

Had the China Realty a considerable capital?—It started with a capital of Tls. 50,000.

Am I right in saying that the China Realty had no real capital?—Yes. Its business was to invest for others.

Not in buying estates but in getting purchasers for others that it made profits?—At the beginning.

PROFIT IN COMMISSIONS

Where does it make this return?—Commission from the sale of land, commission for the collection of rents, for the arrangement of leases and commission for the valuation of properties.

Was the money which you know was the Shanghai Life Insurance Company's money which went out in some cases to the China Realty Company? In other words, it was the Shanghai Life Insurance Company's money that was being invested in the Realty Company?—It depends upon specific cases. We did business generally.

It was put to Mr. Parker in the witness box that King had 20,000 shares in the Company?—It is quite ridiculous. The greatest issue of the Company was 2,000 shares.

Have you any reason to suggest that King did not receive a copy of the report for the year?—It was in the office all the time. These reports were knocking about the office and anybody could get a copy.

Cross-examined by Mr. McDonald: King's work was primarily land work when he was with the Shanghai Life and with the China Realty?—There was no land business in the Shanghai Life. He travelled in the country settling death claims and establishing agencies.

EXPERT ON LANDS

He was therefore an expert in land matters and knew a lot about Shanghai?—Yes.

You put in certain vouchers for commission from March 1905 to June 1906. How much does it amount?—Tls. 2,300.

Does that represent personal introduction?—Yes.

What was the actual date that you first knew of this agreement?—The day on which the first letter arrived from Godfrey and Teesdale.

Concerning certain cash advances in 1910, 1911, and 1912 were they on security?—Two were without security. One specifies a certain security on the voucher. There were 535 Consolidated Rubber shares. A thousand taels was advanced without security and also Tls. 200 without security. There was another thousand taels on security.

Why did you advance this money without security?—As an accommodation. He was a man of means, besides which we had a great deal of security from him at that time.

Did King do much work for the China Realty?—King received no salary from the China Realty. King was a land expert. He was the best man in the land business. He received part of the profits on land sales which amounted in some years to a great deal of money.

HELPED CHINA REALTY

The China Realty was of great assistance to the Shanghai Life or considerable assistance, whichever adjective you prefer?—Yes. The Shanghai Life was of great assistance to the China Realty. It was established in 1909. That was after King's return.

I put it to you that King's experience in the China Land and Finance was of great assistance to the China Realty?—It certainly was.

In further cross-examination, Mr. Israel stated that the capital of the Shanghai Life was raised by the issue of 2,000 shares to bring it within the standard of the Philippines Government requirements. This was in December, 1911. The total amount of capital issued was 22,000 shares.

When did you first meet Parker?—Some considerable time before I joined the Shanghai Life.

When you first joined the Shanghai Life, you had in 1906 some 200 shares. Did you pay for these?—Yes. I bought the shares for five, seven and eight taels. I am sure I paid Tls. 5.

Does the same remark apply to the other shares you bought?—Yes.

When you first joined what was your salary?—Nothing, commission.

PAID 40 PERCENT

The same commission as was paid everybody else?—No. I was specialising in industrial insurance. I think the commission was a little more.

Was the commission on premiums?—The Company paid 40 percent on the first year's premium.

Did you receive any commission on the annual premium apart from the first annual premium?—No.

Never?—I did not say never.

Did Parker receive any commissions on premiums?—He never did.

You know Mr. Sutterle?—Yes.

Is he still in Shanghai now?—Yes.

Is he a relative of Mr. Parker?—Not to my knowledge.

Did you know that Parker consented to King working for the China Land and Finance Company?—I did not know. I know now that he objected, but I did not know then.

From June, 1905 was not the success of the Company assured? If you look at the reports and the statements of the chairman at the meeting was it not assured?—No.

REPARATIONS QUESTION NOW NEAR SOLUTION

Anglo-French Accord Probable, Premier Says

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—In the House of Commons today during the debate on Reparations and after Mr. Clynes and Commander Kenworthy had urged the withdrawal of the Armies of Occupation from Germany, Mr. Lloyd George said that the question of reparation was in a fair way to accomodation. The critical aspect had momentarily disappeared and there was at present no cause for Anglo-French disagreement.

The Premier declared that all reports indicated the likelihood that an arrangement would be reached acceptable to both France and Germany. The question of remission of war debts, he said, was most important and it was impossible to contemplate the proposal that Britain should forego her claims of three thousand millions against her Allies without the remission of her own thousand million debts. Britain, was willing to enter into any international discussion with a view to obliterating the whole of the war debts, provided she received benefit equal to that which she was prepared to confer. (cheers) The Premier added that he believed that at present the German Government was honestly doing its best to fulfil the Treaty of Versailles, but that if a Government came in to resist the Treaty, Britain and France must act together. Isolated action by an ally, he said, would be disastrous

Germany To Get Reparations Respite

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, June 1.—The Reparations Commission has despatched a Note to Germany, agreeing to the temporary postponement of reparations payments due in 1922. The Commission, the Note says, recognises that Germany has made and is making a serious effort to fulfil the demands.

The right is reserved to annul the moratorium if the Commission is not satisfied with the progress accomplished in clearing up outstanding questions in connection with reparations or if Germany, being unable to obtain the desired external loan, does not fulfil the measures regarding the limitation of her floating debt and balancing her budget.

Miss Thomas insured the ticket for a substantial sum before the race by selling a half-share for £3,000.

Rights Of H'kong Chinese Defined

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—In the House of Commons today, Mr. E. F. L. Wood, replying to Sir J. D. Rees, stated that by the Proclamation of 1841 Chinese inhabitants of Hongkong were secured in the free exercise of religious rites and social customs. The Treaty of Nanking, signed in 1824, ceded Hongkong to be governed as His Majesty the King directed.

Germans Ordered To Halt Rail Work

(Reuter's Service)

President Says He Will Quit 'At Proper Moment'

General Wang Shih-chen as Premier is held in abeyance and Mr Chow Tze-chi will carry on as Acting-Premier pending the settlement of the Chief Executive. General Wu Pei-fu and important officials in Peking say that there is reason to expect ex-President Li Yuan-hung to agree to reinstatement, at least, temporarily. Political developments are engrossing general attention to the exclusion of the military situation which, however, is scarcely changed. General Chang Tso-lin is now attending to the Manchurian situation and the Fengtien forces at Shanhaikuan are ready for instant retreat. General Chih Chin-chun the former Tutung of Jehol, has surrendered with the troops who are being sent back to Tungchow.

WILLING TO QUIT

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, June 1.—The circular telegram, which President Hsu Shih-chang yesterday issued to all inspectors-general, tuchuns, civil governors, military lieutenant governors, military commissioners, pacification commissioners, provincial assemblies, commercial and educational circles and newspaper offices, consists of only 230 words. The gist of the telegram is as follows:

"Despite my advanced years, I am now undertaking important state affairs and yet I have always endeavored to use greatest consideration in the management of these affairs. Especially I have grudged no pains in my effort to bring about the public peace and unification of the country.

"Various complications have of late arisen one after another, which I know not how to settle though I have tried very hard to do so even at the stake of my life. Indeed, the state of affairs has come to such a pass that I feel gravest anxiety about the future of this country.

"When I perused General Sun Chuan-fang's circular telegram bearing the date of May 28, I found that what he declared in his telegram is quite clear, representing the popular mind. If things can be carried through exactly as General Sun asserts, it would not be difficult to help the masses out of great misery, to place the country on a rock foundation and to lead the nation to the wealth and power.

"Should I be able to enjoy myself by my resignation, the pleasure I feel then would be ten times as much as I feel at present. It is my cherished desire to revive the deplorable situation and to save the ruin of the country, and yet owing to my inability the situation in China has been brought to the present crisis. If there are any relief measures suitable to the circumstances, I have no hesitation to resign my office at any time."

HALT NEW CABINET

Peking, June 1.—According to Government circles, an ordinance which was expected to be issued for the formation by General Wang Shih-chen of a new Cabinet has been postponed for the time being, the reason being that the Government wishes to see the progress of the question of the reinstallation of General Li Yuan-hung as President, which is now about to be realised.

A certain influential official of the Government states that the Old Parliament is to hold a session in Tientsin today and to ask General Li Yuan-hung to issue a declaration of his reinstallation, and that such a declaration will perhaps be published by either this evening or tomorrow morning.

President Hsu Shih-chang yesterday issued an urgent telegram to all quarters concerned, announcing his determination to resign the Presidency.

Only 6 Convictions Of War Criminals

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—Viscount Cave, addressing the Grotius Society on war crimes and their punishment, referred to Holland's attitude to the Allies in their unsuccessful request for extradition of the Kaiser. He declared that the demand should have been based on definite crimes known to law.

He pointed out that the sixteen cases forwarded by the Allies to Leipzig had resulted in only six convictions which was most unsatisfactory.

He added that the Hague Court of International Justice had yet to win its spurs.

Alleged Slayer Of Coolie Arrested

One of the armed robbers, implicated in the robbery of silver dollars from a wheelbarrow and the murder of the coolie, was arrested yesterday and appeared in the Mixed Court this morning along with 12 other armed robbers. The Chinese who was arrested was remanded for a special hearing on June 7, with the others. He is concerned in several other cases with them.

It was this robbery and murder that immediately preceded the slaying of Mrs. W. J. Snyder. It was believed at the time that the affair was in some way connected with the Korean plot to assassinate Baron General Tanaka, who attempted killing resulted in Mrs. Snyder's death.

CAPT. CUTTLE WINS DERBY; TAMAR IS 2ND

Colt Breaks Old Record In Gruelling Contest

TIME WAS 2:34 3-5

10-1 On First And Next Horse; Favorite St. Louis Fourth

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—The following is the result of the Derby:

1.—Captain Cuttle
2.—Tamar
3.—Craig-an-Gower

The Betting was as follows:

10 to 1 Captain Cuttle
10 to 1 Tamar
20 to 1 Craig-an-Gower

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—The weather at Epsom today was glorious although swelteringly hot. Many people were overcome by the heat before the racing started. Their Majesties the King and Queen, the Duke of York, Prince Henry, Princess Mary, and Viscount Lascelles were present.

After a breakway caused by Tamar and Norseman, Jacquot led from Psychology, Captain Cuttle, Scamp, Irish Battle, St. Louis and Pondoland. This order was maintained for five furlongs when Scamp went up to second place in front of Captain Cuttle, Psychology and St. Louis.

On rounding Tattenham Corner Scamp weakened and Captain Cuttle joined Jacquot who was still leading.

The latter, however, weakened in the next few strides leaving Captain Cuttle clear of Tamar Psychology, Craig-an-Gower, Simon Pure and St. Louis.

The race was then virtually over. Lord Woolavington's colt increasing his lead and finally winning easily.

The time was two minutes thirty-four and three fifth seconds. This is the record, the previous best being Spionkop's in 1920.

St. Louis came in fourth, Simon Pure fifth, Villars sixth and Lofox last. Thirty horses ran.

True Knight, Schiehallion and Ceylonese were scratched otherwise the starters were identical with the last list of probables.

Spionkop's time in 1920 was 2:34 4-5 which clipped two-fifths of a second off that of Lemberg made 10 years before.

Captain Cuttle was ridden by S. Donoghue who thus scores his fourth triumph in piloting home Derby winners. His previous victories were: last year, when he rode Humorist; 1917, on Gay Crusader, and 1915, when Pommern captured the trophy.

The Derby was instituted by the twelfth Earl of Derby in 1780 but he did not win his own race until seven years later when Sir Peter Teazle was brought in by Jockey S. Arnull, probably a more famous figure on the turf of the day that of the Earl of Derby himself.

Ty Cobb Suspended When Steps On Ump

St. Louis, May 31.—Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers is the latest to fall under a suspension order handed out by President Ban B. Johnson of the American League.

Cyrus had an argument with an umpire in the afternoon game here on Memorial Day and stepped on the umpire's toe. Cobb claimed that it was accidental. The umpire figured that it was intentional.

Ban Johnson suspended Cobb until he could make an investigation and the Georgia Peach will be on the bench for few days.

Several other players on the Detroit team and three men of the St. Louis have been suspended. The cause has not been announced.

NANKING NINE WILL PLAY GAME HERE TOMORROW

Kingman's Team Has Been Made Into Stronger Aggregation; Elect Captain Today

Definite word was received here yesterday by Manager Gallop of the Shanghai Baseball club to the effect that Harry Kingman's gang of ball tossers from Nanking would provide the week-end entertainment here in Shanghai. The telegram which Gallop is quoting promises a game for Saturday. Should the Nanking men not be available for the Sunday date a Reds-Blues game, with one nine composed from the old timers and the other from new comers will be the feature for the Sabbath.

The game tomorrow will also mark the real serious opening of the drive for memberships. With the stands all complete, and the entrance gates under perfect control, every fan attending the game will either sign up as a member or pay the usual game charge for a comfy place in the stands. Secretary Jack Smith expects to sign up several hundred delinquent members tomorrow and Sunday, and, with the new week to be up to or close to last year's mark of 655 names.

The Nanking team according to Manager Gallop has been built over since its last game here and with more team and individual practice it is expected that Saturday's game will be a closely contested affair. Harry Kingman, the former big league twirler has rounded into better shape; Gray his back stop is holding him up in better style, and the whole nine has been taking regular severe batting practice against first class pitching.

Shanghai men will take a hard workout this afternoon in anticipation of the weekend games. Both infield and outfield will be worked from 5 p.m. until dark, with pitchers throwing real hooks and speed for batting work. After the practice a permanent captain for the season will be selected. Every member of the squad is urged to be out.

Yale Leads Ancient Rivals In Victories Won Since 1918

Figures which have been prepared by Yale athletic authorities, drawn from contests of the Blue with Harvard and Princeton and incorporated into a permanent record, show that since the Fall of 1918 Yale has won in seventy-six contests. Princeton in thirty and Harvard in twenty-three. In three meets there were ties. In football, baseball, crew, track and cross-country meets Yale won twenty-four, Princeton ten and Harvard nine. Football proved to be the weakest spot for Yale in the triangular competition, for it won only once. In baseball Yale won nine out of seventeen games, in rowing three out of six, in track five out of six, and in cross-country six out of eight. In minor sports Yale teams have won fifty-two contests out of a possible eighty-six. Yale freshman teams meeting freshmen of the two other universities from the Fall of 1918 have been in seventy-seven contests, winning fifty-three times, as against twelve times by Princeton and eleven times by Harvard, with one a tie.

Jimmy Murphy Wins Big Speedway Race

Indianapolis, May 30.—Jimmy Murphy of Los Angeles, winner of the French Grand Prix in 1921, won the 500-mile automobile race at the Indianapolis Speedway today, carrying off the cash prize of $28,000.

Harry Hartz was second and Eddie Harne finished third.

Murphy set a new world's record, making an average of 94.48 miles per hour.

Twenty-seven machines started the International Sweepstakes, the flag dropping at 10 o'clock in the morning. The first ten to finish divided $85,000 in prizes.

Among those competing were the veterans DePalma, Milton, Jules Goux, Howard Wilcox and Frank Davidson. Davidson's rotary valve machine broke down during the tryouts.

Murphy, the winner, is a brother of the chief of the San Francisco fire department.

Take Lead In Interschoo Tourney; Nanyang Comes Second

HURLERS' BATTLE

Hager Has Best Of Going Against Nanyang's Three Best Men

The American School boys took the lead in the interscholastic baseball tournament yesterday with a 10-2 win over Nanyang, which had beaten St. John's on Wednesday by a score of 26-7. The game was a pitchers' battle between Hager of the American School, and three twirlers from Nanyang, Hwang, Chen and Wen. Only one extra base hit was knocked out, a double by Smith in the first inning.

The American boys scored seven runs in the first frame and thereafter had the game held easily. The first avalanche of scores resulted from three boots by Nanyang men; three hits in-

TSCHERKASSKAIA GIVES CONCERT AT TOWN HALL

Well-Known Soprano Appears In Recital With M. Bravin

The faithful music fan in Shanghai might be pardoned for believing that this is not only Music Week, but Russian Music Week. To the past performances of Lipkowska, Sklarevski and Zimbalist must be added the exceptionally good program rendered by two other famous Russians, Madame M. B. Tcherkasskaia and Mr. N. M. Bravin, formerly of the Russian Imperial Opera and the Moscow Theater, in the Town Hall last night.

Madame Tcherkasskaia's voice is the marvelously clear and powerful voice of the natural born and carefully trained dramatic soprano. With apparently no effort she scaled seemingly impossible heights and filled the hall with a full rush of harmony whose first rippling echoes gave greater richness to succeeding notes.

Mr. Bravin's deep baritone blended perfectly with Madame Tcherkasskaia's soprano in their duets, particularly in the selection from "Aida" with which they closed their program, but was heard to best advantage in his solo numbers.

The selections, in keeping with the Russian music vogue that is "in" this week, were the compositions of well-known Russians, and included an air from "Hovanchina" by Moussorgsky, sung by Mr. Bravin, an air from "Siren" by Dargomigsky, sung by Madame Tcherkasskaia, and Tschaikowsky's "The Night."

The two singers gave as their opening numbers "Mountain Summits," by Rubinstein and "Autumn Song" by Mendelssohn. These were followed by the Moussorgsky air and an air from "Carmen," both sung by Mr. Bravin.

Madame Tscherkasskaia concluded the first part of the program with selections from "Russian and Ludmilla," by Glinka, and from "Siren."

The beauty of the soprano's voice in minor melodies and her technical skill were exquisitely and forcefully demonstrated in the two songs by A. Georges, The "Hymne des Morts," and the "Hymne au Soleil." So deep was the singer's understanding of the theme of each and so clear her interpretation that no program was necessary to know she was singing a song of sadness and death and then, in a burst of lyric glory, a melody of extravagant praise.

The encores given were some little known Russian songs, so light in touch as to be almost French.

The concert last night was to aid the local American Red Cross in sending funds for the Russian Children's Fund in the Volga district, where the famine has been felt most severely.

Germany Replies To Payment Note

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, May 31.—The German reply to the Reparations Commission has been published here. It points out that by various economies the 1922 Budget has been reduced by 24,500,000,000 marks as compared with 1921 and promised specific measures to prevent an increase of the floating debt, if reasonable assistance is given by means of a foreign loan.

The reply agrees to a certain degree of Allied supervision over national accounts and to take steps to prevent the exportation of capital and to try to secure the return of exported capital.

Berlin, May 31.—A vote of non-confidence in the Government for "ignoring the Reichstag with regard to the Reparations negotiations" was rejected in the Reichstag today. The National People's Parties and the Communists supported the resolution.

Del Monte Aerodrome Reopens On Saturday

Completely redecorated with all of the fantastic artistry which the Orient can produce, the Del Monte Cafe "Aerodrome" will be formally reopened for the season's outdoor dancing on Saturday night. The pavilion, through the efforts of Manager Hyde and his assistants, has been decorated in an exceptionally pleasing manner, with soft light reflected from Chinese lanterns and inverted umbrellas, and the dance floor has been waxed into excellent shape. Cool, outdoor dancing will be the rule at the Del Monte from Saturday night on.

Special plans are being made for the formal opening. The Del Monte jazz orchestra will, of course, be on hand as usual, and a number of artists will appear in solo dance and song interpretations.

Not So Speedy, But It Gets There

RAILWAY LABOR LEADERS TO PLAN POLITICAL ACTION

(Chung Mei Service)

New York, May 5.—A conference of progressive labor and political leaders which has as its object the adoption of a "fundamental economic program," has been called by the 16 standard railway labor organisations of the United States and is expected to provide the basis for the greatest possible co-operation in the Congressional campaign next autumn. Invitations for the conference, which will take place in Chicago in a few weeks have been received by two hundred trade union and farm organisation executives, spokesmen of liberal and radical political parties, and individuals identified with American liberalism.

In issuing this call it is interesting to note, the railway labor organisations fall in line with the present policy of the American Socialist Party which at its convention last June tentatively proposed a conference for the purpose of mobilising and consolidating the political power of the workers, and called on its National Executive Committee for a report. When this committee met in November, it was intimated that influential members and officials of various labor organisations might themselves call a conference, and the committee therefore adopted a resolution which permits Socialist Party members to sit in a conference with labor representatives in a consultative capacity only. It has already been announced that Socialists will attend the Chicago conference, and spokesmen for the party have expressed the hope that it will embody a long step in the direction of independent political action on the part of the workers.

The purpose of the conference is explained in the final paragraphs of the invitation which read:

"There has been no common understanding to bind the workers of all walks of life together. For lack of this common understanding was to have been divided and betrayed. To the end that there may be a beginning of that wisdom which comes only through understanding, the 16 standard railroad labor organisations, through the undersigned—their only authorised committee—invite you to attend a conference of the representatives of the progressive elements in the industrial and political life of the United States who will meet to discuss and adopt a fundamental economic program designed to restore to the people the sovereignty that is rightly theirs, to make effective the purpose for which our government is established, to secure to all men the enjoyment of the gains which their own industry produces.

"This is not an attempt to form a new political party. It is an effort to make use of those constructive forces already in existence, and by co-operation bring about political unity."

Dollar Line Bark Approximates Record

A voyage very nearly approximating the record for a vessel of its class is reported for the American bark "William Dollar, of the Rebert Dollar line, which arrived at Port Townsend, Wash., on April 27th, after a passage of slightly less than thirty-three days from Shanghai. The William Dollar is a 5,000 deadweight carrier, and this passage is considered exceptionally good in view of the fact that the record for such a voyage by a vessel of similar type is thirty days.

American School Plans Graduation

Commencement exercises at the American School will be held beginning Saturday, and continuing through until Thursday of next week.

The class day exercises are set for 8 p.m. Saturday at the Eliza Yates Auditorium, 178 N. Szechuen Road. On Sunday at 5 p.m., the Baccalaureate Address will be delivered at Masonic Hall by the Rev. James V. Latimer, D. D., of Hangchow.

The Senior Class will stage the operetta "Bulbul" at the Olympic Theater Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, and the formal commencement exercises will be held Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the same theater. Prof. Kenneth S. Latourette, Ph. D., of Yale University will deliver the principal address. A reception will be held Thursday evening by Principal W. W. Bartlett at 172-A. N. Szechuen Road.

Shroff Given Two Weeks In Which To Refund Missing Sum

An embezzlement of more than eleven hundred dollars was charged against Sung Tsen-kipu, a shroff formerly employed by the International Dispensary, in the Mixed Court yesterday before Magistrate Yui and Assessor Tenney. The exact sums mentioned were $657 and $463.10. The defendant was allowed two weeks, after a hearing in which to make restitution.

Sung was employed by the Dispensary as a collecting shroff, with travelling through the provinces of Kiangsu and Anhwei, until December last when he left the employ of the company.

The complainant told the court he had written the defendant nine times, asking him to return the money which was discovered to have been embezzled after Sung had left the company but that all his letters were unheeded.

In reply, Sung declared that the company owes him three months' salary. "I will return the money within two weeks," he said. "The sum stated is not correct; there is $300 due me for travelling expenses: there is not so much money missing."

The complainant maintains that the travelling expenses are only $140.

Genoa Debated In French Chamber

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, May 31.—The Chamber of Deputies today opened the debate on the Genoa Conference.

The Socialist deputy, M. Sembat, emphasised that the opinion abroad, especially in Britain, was that France must change her policy towards Germany in order to preserve Anglo-French friendship and expressed gratification that the possibility of the occupation of the Ruhr had been averted.

M. Poincare read a Socialist motion, urging the reconstruction of France and Europe simultaneously with Russia, excluding the spirit of the war. M. Poincare remarked that all were agreed on this.

M. Sembat, speaking later, exhorted France to resume her tradition as liberator of peoples and collaborate with Germany.

The debate was then adjourned until tomorrow.

Merkuloff Under Arrest, Is Report

(Eastern News Agency)

Vladivostok, June 1.—The People's Assembly continued its sitting from yesterday to 2 o'clock this morning, impeaching Mr. Merkuloff and his brother. It appears that a resolution has been passed for temporarily transfering the political power to the People's Assembly before Mr. Merkuloff issues an order for its dissolution.

Rumor has it that Merkuloff and his brother have been arrested. All newspapers, with the exception of Government organs, were suppressed for a time by the Commander of the Garrison, but papers which were delivered this morning report the arrest of Mr. Merkuloff and his brother.

The local Russian newspaper The Shanghai Life reports that a private telegram has been received here saying that Spiridon Merkuloff, President of so called "Priamour Government" has been arrested in Vladivostock on May 31.

The order for his arrest, the telegram says, was issued by the Peoples Assembly at Chita.

S. V. C. Notes

MACHINE GUN CO.

During the few weeks immediately preceding the Annual Inspection the Armored Cars were being turned out by the New Engineering Works like "Hot Cakes," the last of the complete fleet of six being delivered just in time for the Ceremonial Parade on May 21. At the same time the welcome news arrived that the new Vickers Guns had left England, and these are due to reach Shanghai early in July, thus completing the equipment of this company.

In order the meet the circumstances arising from the addition of the new Arms a re-organisation amounting almost to an upheaval has had to be carried out, but this is now complete and the company is finally organised on the basis of the Armored Cars being the principal weapons.

Recruiting goes on steadily at a very pleasing rate, and the company is now well over 100 strong. If the present rate of increase continues the final establishment should be reached within the next few months. It is hoped that those who intend to join will not defer doing so until the commencement of the next Training Season, as instruction on the new Guns will commence immediately they arrive and the intention is to put as many men as possible through the theoretical course during the summer months so that as little time as is necessary need be spent on this work during the actual Training Season.

NEW POLICE CHIEF

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 25.—A mandate issued last night appoints General Nei Hsian-fan, former Civil Governor of Anhuei, as Commander-in-chief of the Peking Gendarmerie.

General Wang Huai-ching who has been at the head of the Gendarmerie since the Anfu trouble and has acted concurrently as temporary Commander-in-chief of the Peking Garrison, is now given the latter post substantively.

General Nei is the right-hand man of General Tsao Kun and the appointment is made on General Tsao's recommendation.

Teachers' Pension Bill In Commons

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—The Government defeat on May 16 on a motion of adjournment which was carried against them on the Teachers' Superannuation Bill was recalled today in a report of the Select Committee of nine members which was appointed to inquire whether, in fixing the present salaries of teachers, the Government or Parliament had given an undertaking that the teachers' superannuation should not be altered.

The Commitee has now decided, by a bare majority, that there was no implied Government obligation to continue the contributory system of pensions.

IN CANADA BABY'S OWN TABLETS ARE THE SAFEGUARD OF INNUMERABLE HOMES.

A British Columbia Mother's Thanks.

A Canadian remedy, Baby's Own Tablets have an immense reputation in their home-land. Mrs. R. E. Long, of Peachland, British Columbia, is but one of thousands of grateful mothers who give grateful praise to them. She writes:

"My baby is now thirteen months old and my experience has been that the use of Baby's Own Tablets allays the fever caused by teething and gives baby healthy sleep. My baby has always been healthy except for the fever and restlessness accompanying teething and an occasional cold, but the Tablets have proved so beneficial in these cases that I would not be without them."

The action of Baby's Own Tablets is prompt yet exceedingly gentle. They reduce fever, dispel colic and constipation, check diarrhoea, allay teething pains, cure indigestion, expel worms, quiet the nerves and bring restful, health-giving sleep in a natural way. Druggists sell them; also post free at 60 cents the vial direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

ROTARIANS HEAR SCHOOL PRODUCTION

American Students Appear In "Bulbul" At Weekly Tiffin Meeting

Seventy-five students of the Shanghai American School took part in the production of a comic operetta, "Bulbul," at the Carlton Cafe at noon yesterday before the members of the Shanghai Rotary Club. The play was acted and sung with a precision which brought credit to Miss Bernice L. Austin of the faculty, who directed the work. Miss Austin is the music teacher at the school. Nettie Junkin and Ruth Estes were highly praised for their part in the operetta.

"Bulbul" will be given for the general public on Wednesday afternoon at the Olympic Theater. The synopsis and cast follow:

The story concerns the beautiful Princess Bulbul, daughter of King Iamit, who is to be betrothed to the great Prince Caspian whom she has never seen. She dreads the ordeal, but is roused from the contemplation of her sad plight by the appearance of a most attractive peddler and his followers, all of whom are selling perfumes. It is a case of love at first sight between the Princess and the Peddler, and the Peddler of course, finally proves to be the Prince in disguise.

The cast for the production follows:

Iamit a well meaning but fussy monarch .....Oliver Caldwell
Bulbul, his beauteous daughter ..Nettie Junkin
Caspian, an amiable young prince Yates McDaniels
Ida, the Court Chaperon Ruth Estes
Lilia, a friend to Bulbul Elizabeth Wilbur
Alain, a friend to Caspian Rod Moffett
Dasay, keeper of the Royal Spectacles ..... Alex Moffet
Justso, keeper of the Royal Cash Box ..... Herbert Waters.

News Notes Of St. Mary's Hall

The month of May has been, as usual, a busy month at school. There are always many events outside the school routine at this time of year.

The students have been much interested in the social settlement recently started in the village of Zau Ka Doo. The sum of $121.00 was raised in the school to aid in starting this work. The girls have also given entertainments in the Settlement House, as well as giving several numbers on the program at a meeting held at St. John's University. On May 3, Miss Woo Yuen-foh gave her graduating piano recital; and on May 19 there was the usual spring concert, at which several pupils played. Mrs. Chapman and Mr. Scheijver gave some selections on the piano and 'cello at that time.

Parents' Day was held on May 27. A very large number of parents and friends came; and spent the early part of the afternoon visiting classes in Chinese, hygiene and geography.

There were exhibitions of Chinese scrolls, maps and note books, the sewing classes and the work done by the Art department. A program in the Assembly Hall combined work done in Chinese, Music and English. After tea some folk dances were given in the quadrangle ending with the winding of the May Pole.

200 Water Works Laborers Strike

Two hundred casual laborers employed by the Shanghai Water Works department went on strike yesterday with a demand for an increase in wages approximating 25 percent of their present wage. There are no other demands of importance. The casual workers, as far as is known are not organised, the strike has hampered to an extent the works of the department, the regularly employed force have taken over all work and are expected to perform the duties of the casuals until a settlement is reached.

PROPOSAL

For the purchase of the U. S. S. POMPEY.

Sealed proposals will be received at the U. S. Naval Station Cavite, P. I., until 10 a.m. on the 12th day of June 1922, at which time and place they will be opened, for the purchase of the U. S. S. POMPEY.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE POMPEY

Built at Sunderland, England, in 1897, by S. P. Austin & Sons, Ltd. Structure: Material, steel, propulsion, screw; rig, schooner; tonnage 736 Suez Canal; mean draft 16' 10". Speed: 10.5 knots. Length over all: 245' 0". Length between perpendiculars: 234' 0". Breadth on load water line: 33' 6". Displacement: 3085 tons (estimated). Draft: Aft. full load: 15' 10". Bunker capacity: (42 c. ft. 1 ton) 205. Main engine: tripple expansion vertical. Boilers: 1 scotch marine: 4 furnace; 1 auxiliary vertical tubular boiler about 300 H.P. Electrically lighted throughout. Two (2) generators, capacity—about 40 K. W. Two (2) search lights.

Present condition: Excellent. Recently overhauled. Ready for immediate service and equipped with boats; radio outfit; spare propeller and tail shaft; outfit of blocks and lines; hawsers; ground tackle; cabin furniture, galley equipment ovens; refrigerators; navigational instruments; auxiliary machinery spare parts; canvas outfit; awnings; windsails; staysails; large assortment of hand tools, etc.

The sale will be for cash to the highest bidder, who must remove the vessel, at his own expense, from the limits of the Naval Station within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Captain of the Yard, Cavite.

Proposals must be submitted in a sealed envelope addressed to the Commandant, Naval Station, Cavite, P. I., endorsed "PROPOSAL FOR THE PURCHASE OF THE POMPEY": and each proposal must be accompanied by a cash deposit or a satisfactory certified check for the full amount of the bid, or by a bond equal to the full amount of the bid and an additional cash deposit or satisfactory certified check for not less than 10% of the bid.

Apply to the U. S. Navy Purchasing Officer, Shanghai, China, for forms of bid and bonds; additional information regarding the terms of sale, etc.

Apply to the Captain of the Yard, Cavite, at 9:00 a.m. of any day (except Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) prior to the sale to examine the POMPEY.

The right is reserved to withdraw the vessel from sale or to reject any or all bids.

Railway Chief Names Assistant

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 29.—It is understood that the Minister of Communications, Mr. Kao Eng-hung, has selected Dr. C. C. Wang as Vice Minister of Communications. Owing to the latter's inability to come to Peking, however, Mr. Lao Chih-chang has been appointed to act temporarily as Vice-Minister.

ALIEN ACT

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 31.—Replying to Sir William Davison in the House of Commons today, Mr. Edward Shortt said that he hoped to introduce a Bill amending British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act after the recess.

NEW TELEGRAPH LINE

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, May 27.—The Indo-European telegraph concession is working. Communications have opened between Tiflis and Teheran and also Odessa and Constantinople. The line between Poland and Germany is operating in full order.

Soviet Sees Scheme To Grab Oil Lands

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, May 27.—The Investia (Official Gazette), writing on the Azerbeijan oil fields, remarks: "Russian petroleum has played a leading part behind the Genoa scenes, and the second act will be continued at The Hague.

"Russia is the amused onlooker in the scramble between foreign oil-kings. Azerbeijan petroleum is firmly in our hands and oil trusts for concessions will apply to us and not to them."

The Azerbeijan petroleum administration's report shows a thirty-two per cent increase in the last six months' output.

YICHUN ARRIVES

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 29.—It is stated in military circles that the Yichun stationed at Chowyang under command of General Yin Knei have arrived at Liuhsi.

Japan Conforming To Conference Pact

(China Press Service)

Washington, May 31.—It is understood that Acting Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt, in the absence of Secretary Denby, in replying to the Senate Naval Committee's inquiry regarding the reported Japanese navy building to the amount of $280,000,000 said that as far as the United States Navy Department was concerned or had been informed, the program was strictly conforming with the Arms Conference naval treaty.

MOSCOW FOOD PRICES

(Rosta News Agency)

Moscow, May 27.—Thanks to the completion of seed supplies to the rural districts, Moscow begins to receive considerable food stuffs and farm produce, thus causing a further drop in the prices of food.

Freight Market

In their fortnightly freight market report, Messrs. Wheelock and Company state:

The situation in the export trade from China to Europe and America remains unchanged and we have consequently nothing fresh to report.

To United States via Pacific: We understand that the Trans-Pacific Freight Bureau intends to reduce from today, quite a number of its rates especially on commodities from Tientsin.

Coastwise:—Our Northern Market has improved since last writing and there is quite a fair demand for tonnage for end of May—early June loading from Newchwang and Antung.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

June 1, 1922

Since our last writing, spot and forward bar silver were each up ¼d. in London.

The New York price advanced to 72¼ cents, and the London-New York cross rate is unchanged at 445.

The official quotations here today were unchanged from Tuesday, and the market was about steady throughout the morning, there being sellers of Sterling at 3-7 and of Gold Dollars at 79¾ for June delivery; and small buyers at these rates for forward delivery.

In the afternoon, speculators became buyers, and rates eased off untill at the close, there were no sellers of Sterling at better then 3-6¾ for June and 3-6⅝ for July. The best sellers of Gold Dollars at the close were offering 79¼ for June and 79 for July-August.

India bought a small amount of silver in London on Tuesday, and both the London and New York silver markets are reported as quiet and steady.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending Wednesday:

Exchange:—Since our last circular, after slight fluctuations, the price of Bar Silver in London remains at the same level, namely, 36½ pence per oz. for spot and forward. Our rate for T.T. is steady at 3s. 7d. with probable sellers at 3s. 7¼d. and T.T. on America at 80.

Native speculators have been the principle support of the market throughout the week, although export paper has also been offering, but not in important amounts.

With our stocks of Sycee and Dollars showing a continuous decrease, a weak market seems improbable at present.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver Tls. 23,790,000, a decrease of Tls. 1,647,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars $30,220,000, a decrease of $4,250,000.

Estimated value Tls. 45,548,000 as against Tls. 56,902,000 held this time last year.

Seiyukai Sees No Menace To Japan

Tokio, May 31.—The Seiyukai Party today held a meeting of its members, at which a report on the 45th session of the Diet was brought up for discussion and decided upon. In the conclusion of the report, a passage reads:

"As the result of the Washington Conference, agreements have been reached on the restriction of naval armaments, the Four Power Treaty, and the restriction of defensive works on the Pacific, all of which tending to guarantee world peace. No menace whatever is left towards our country.

"We are now able to cut expenses for national defence to a large extent and the sum thus saved may be utilised for the development of national finances and culture. When all the Powers endeavor to carry on in this same spirit a sound foundation for the permanent peace of the world easily can be laid down."

China, Japan, Russia And Mongolia

BY LT. COL. B. ROUSTAM BEK

DURING these few days, much has been written about the independence to be established in Manchuria under the protection of militaristic Japan and the ex-Mukden Warlord. This news has caused a great alarm in the diplomatic circles of the great Powers as well as in China. Naturally, the Soviet Government and the Far Eastern Republic cannot remain passive to such important events.

The creation, by Chang Tso-lin, of a strong buffer state between Siberia and China is indeed a very dangerous thing for Russia in general and the Far East in particular. This also would have placed the Far Eastern Republic in a most disastrous position strategically, especially at the present moment when this Republic is attacked by the Japanese forces.

How can Soviet Russia remain silent in watching such a state of affairs along her tremendous borders in Asia. It is therefore quite natural that Russia's sacred right is to guide the attention of the public opinion of the world to such important matters which can easily provoke a new sanguinary conflict in the East.

A section of the reasonable Japanese Press, which is in opposition to the intention of the military clique of Tokio, supports the Russian demand for the withdrawal of Japanese troops from the Maritime Province and Saghalien, in order that Japanese diplomacy would be able to enter into direct negotiations with Moscow and Chita and to secure the possibility of arriving at a peaceful understanding. This undoubtedly would ease the settlement of the Manchurian and Mongolian question between Russia and China. But the other section of the Japanese Press which is existing on the subsidies from militaristic Japan is obstinately continuing to accuse the Russians in spreading propaganda against Japan, considering her as being the disturber of the peace in the Far East. On several occasions, I have drawn the attention of my readers to the fact that besides Russia's accusation of militaristic Japan, the Press of the whole world with the London Times at its head is also condemning Japan.

Nobody would deny that China suffers and has suffered tremendously from her neighbors, namely, Czarist Russia and Imperialistic Japan, the country which brought upon the Chinese Republic the usurping rule of Chang Tso-lin, who is still a menace to the reunification of China though he has been dislodged by the heroic national defense of General Wu Pei-fu. China suffers most from Japan. Everybody knows it and the whole civilised world is indignant with it. Look at Shantung, South Manchuria, the Chinese Eastern Railway and Formosa; are they not the best illustrations to prove the real aggressiveness of Japan towards China. And if we shall add to this the projected new defense line which is designed by the Japanese General Staff and has to cross Chinese territory from Hankow northward via Harbin, the general picture of such aggressiveness would be complete and would indicate the coming sufferings which the Chinese people have to endure in the future, in case of a possible conflict between Japan and any third country.

In Formosa, the Chinese are treated by the Japanese, worse than the outcasts of humanity and their destiny in that island is still more tragic than that of the Koreans in Korea. While militaristic Japanese Press is trying to approve the expenses which the Japanese General Staff invests for its own existence and is publishing articles referring to the alleged aggressiveness of Russia towards China, Manchuria is practically invaded by the Japanese military force. For instance a complete Japanese brigade is stationed at Harbin. Are they there for the purpose of preserving order in Chang Tso-lin's "Kingdom" or are they there for some other reasons? I think that the presence of the Japanese garrisons in that part of Manchuria can only be explained by Japan's aim in the direction towards Mongolia and the Russian Far East, and her desire to secure the possession of the Chinese Eastern Railway as a strategical artery in Manchuria.

A great deal was said about the interests of certain Powers in Mongolia. But which of these powers do really have interests in Mongolia which, it seems to me, has become a bone of contention between Japan, America, Russia, China and even England.

I think that first of all the Mongolians have to be mostly interested about their own country and this is absolutely neglected by the Powers except Soviet Russia.

What, in reality, does Mongolia mean to the United States, which has no special interests in Mongolia, except a couple of merchants of secondary importance. Her interest in that part of the world can scarcely be greater than that of Russia in Mexico. There is some interest in Mongolia for the English woolen industry, but as I have heard from Mr. Percy Thornton, one of the greatest English wool producers in Russia, the Russians together with the Mongols are managing the woolen trade on traditional lines in a very successful way. America does not seek for raw material in Mongolia, as she has every thing at home and is separated from the latter territory by thousands and thousands of miles. At the same time, she is unable to support American capital in this part of China, due to the absence of a definite and firm policy in Asia.

Though she has been, for centuries, bound with Mongolia by mutual trading interests, Russia has not even for a single moment maintained the idea that Mongolia is not part of China. On the contrary, the Soviet Government has on many occasions made clear that it considers Mongolia as an integral but autonomous part of the Chinese Republic. The presence of the Russian military forces in Mongolia, however, is on the one hand provoked by the aggressive actions of the Russian Counter Revolutionaries who are scattered throughout Mongolia and on the other by the permanent threatenings from Chang Tso-lin against the Far Eastern Republic.

In today's issue of Yi Shih Pao' (May 29 1922), a telegram is published that Merkuloff has sent his representative named Vassilieff (?) to Mukden in order to conclude a military alliance with Chang Tso-lin. This alliance must be for defensive and offensive (1) purposes. The message tells us that Mr. Vassilieff has already arrived at Dairen. With great astonishment, I also notice a news item issued in Peking in reference to Mongolian affairs. The local Japanese press did not miss an opportunity to allege that Communism is established in Urga and that Mongolia is a victim of Bolsheviki. Such a stupid statement as the one I read in the Sunday issue of one of our contemporaries can only bring forth laughter from every sound minded man. It is generally known that the Soviet Government had already, in 1921, changed its economical policy, by renouncing to establish the Communistic regime in Russia. Lenin himself publicly declared that in order to approach Communism a country has to pass a long stage of economic and industrial development. Though she has never rejected the idea of reaching its political aim sooner or later, Russia has decided to work in harmony with capitalistic states now. There is no earthly reason why Russia should introduce Communism in Mongolia where there is, in every respect, less ground for such a regime than in Russia itself.

In publishing such an absurd assertion one must be completely ignorant or think that it is perhaps still unknown to the rest of the world that the Mongolian nomads have overcome Karl Marx's doctrine more easily than the Russians themselves.

The Mongolian Government inherited the country in a state of complete anarchy after Baron Ungern was eliminated. There were no laws; neither was there any order in Mongolia, and the newly formed government was obliged to follow the existing treaties signed between Russia and China. For exemple, I may draw attention to the Sino-Russian agreement concerning Hulunbuir (Barga) dated October 24 (November 6, 1915, namely durin the Czar's time. This agreement in full can be found in Annex VII of the China Year Book 1921—2 page 602. It reads as follows:

"As however the lands of Hulunbuir are the common property of all its people, the Chinese may only acquire land and lease for definite periods and only in such places where, according to the opinion of the local authorities, agricultural erploitation will not interfere with stock raising by the native population."

If the nationalisation of land is considered by some ignorant people as "communism," Czar Nicholas II and China have to be blamed for having established such communism to Hulunbuir. The present Mongolian Government has, for the movement, only recognised the existing facts. The rumors I have referred to are certainly important for Chang Tso-lin and his supporters. It is also needed by the imperialistic press of the Japanese General Staff in order to confuse Chinese public opinion and to provoke the unfriendly feelings of General Wu Pei-fu towards Soviet Russia. Such futile endeavors on the part of the Japanese propaganda agents can only help us to find some truth which would otherwise remain unknown. Though for a long time, I have been certain that the Russian Counter Revolutionists are serving with Chang Tso-lin, I did not have sufficient proof that it is so. And as Chang Tso-lin's agents have denied that fact, I refrain from insisting on this in my previous articles. But to my great surprise, in the Sunday issue of the "North China Standard" I read an editorial confession of very great importance, namely that "it is a well-known fact that quite a number of Russians are serving with Marshal Chang Tso-lin, his chief of cavalry being a Russian for instance. Nobody seems able to conceive the idea that the trenches could have been designed by Russians, who on account of the European War, are far more experienced in trench-warfare than the Japanese."

This Japanese newspaper, however, would not be surprised if these Russians are the Bolsheviki because "the connections between the latter and Marshal Chang Tso-lin seem to be much more intimate than those between the Mukden Warlord and the Japanese."

Everything has its limit and I think that this is the real zenith of Japanese insinuation.

Without any hesitation, I can state that there will hardly be a human soul in Russia whose heart is beating for his country that will take any part in Chang Tso-lin's muddle, openly directed against Chinese prosperity.

The existing relations between Chang Tso-lin and the Bolsheviki can be perfectly illustrated by recent occurrences in Manchuria. The premises of the Representative of the Far Eastern Republic were searched by the order of the Mukden Warlord. The brothers Falko, citizens of Chita, were arrested, imprisoned for a year, robbed and personally tortured by Chang Tso-lin himself. The meeting of May 1 in Harbin was prevented by Chang Tso-lin. He also refused a licence for a lottery in benefit of the starving Russians of the Volga region.

On the other hand General Wu Pei-fu undoubtedly knows the real feeling of Soviet Russia towards China and the sympathy existing in Moscow towards his cause. He certainly knows that the interests of the Soviet Republic are closely bound up with those of its great neighbor China and that both Soviet Russia and China want the Japanese to leave Korea and Manchuria, thus permitting the complete demobilisation of the Chinese and Russian armies. He also knows that in case he will move his army into Mongolia the Soviet troops would meet them with cheers.

Quite a different reception is prepared for Chang Tso-lin and his supporters. With them, the Red Army would speak by means of guns and bayonets, because behind General Wu Pei-fu will be the Chinese Nation while Chang Tso-lin's advance will be followed by the Japanese army. Let us suppose for a moment that Japanese propaganda is right and that all its accusations directed against the Russians are worthy to be taken seriously. Supposing that Soviet Russia is really inclined to seize the Chinese Eastern Railway and to commit other blunders which militaristic Japan is attempting to picture Russia as committing, and presuming that the Soviet Republic does not care about the friendly relations with General Wu Pei-fu, who would believe that the Soviet Republic is guided by such diplomats and statesmen as Lenin, Trotsky, Chicherin and others, who, for a long time, have gained the respect of the foremost leaders of the world. Are they really so stupid as to quarrel with a real representative of National China, a man who never would accept any compromise from Japan. Or would it be possible that General Wu Pei-fu, a literary man and an experienced soldier, would not be able to understand this? . . .

Many Offsets To Our Bodily Imperfection

In reporting for El Siglo (Madrid) an address on the imperfections of the human body, made by Dr. D. Amalio Gimeno of Cabanas, Dr. Marco recalls an alleged saying of King Alfonso of Castile, made before a joint body of Christians, Jews and Musulmans, that if the Deity had consulted him before having created the universe he would have made suggestions which would have led to a better piece of work. Much more modest was a certain American physician, who, had he been consulted, would have left out the tonsils from the human body. It is evident that statements of this sort intend no irreverence, but only express in a whimsical manner our ignorance of the purpose of certain organs," comments the Medical Record (New York).

Dr. Gimeno criticises the diaphragm, the ureter, the cystic duct, the entire anterior abdominal wall. The too easy communication between the vessels without and those within the cranium, the teeth, so fragile in respect to caries, the tonsils and Waldeyer's ring in general, the functional disharmonies of the gastroenteric tract, the poor drainage which attaches to the emptied gravid uterus, and so on through the whole domain of pathology whenever some apparent anatomical shortcoming makes possible the development of some disease.

"Apparently," continues the Medical Record, "he denies the supposed benefits and conservative functions of pain. Nevertheless, all of the short comings which can be enumerated have a definite role in creation; for in seeking to overcome them, man has been forced to develop his brain and if he is to become a superman, it will be because he will continue to develop his brain in the same manner."

And, it comments, Dr. Gimeno fins no imperfections in the psychic side of man, the superiority of which "seems necessary to effect these new physical defects."

Beauty In Boston

A fund approximating $5,000,000 is bequeathed to the city of Boston by George R. White to be used in further beautifying the city with new "public blessings . . . such as a zoological garden and handsome buildings therefor, an aquarium, a forum of substantial proportions for public gatherings, etc., which we do not possess."

The gift is the second largest ever received by the city, and is about equal to that from the estate of George F. Parkman. The income only of the White fund is to be used.

The control and management of the sum and the disbursement of the income is left to a board of five trustees, comprising the mayor, who shall be its chairman, the president of the city council, the city auditor, the president of the Chamber of Commerce and the president of the Boston Bar Association.

The gift consists largely of real estate located in the central part of Boston. It is recommended that it be not sold for a period of at least 100 years, and that its leases shall be subject to revaluations as a basis of rentals every 10 years.

It is specifically stated that the income of the fund shall not be used for small and comparatively unimportant needs, "which might be equally deserving and technically within the general scope of the trust."

It is the intention that the income shall accumulate, if necessary, for a time long enough to make possible the "creating of works of public utility and beauty, for the use and enjoyment of the inhabitants of the city."

"Inasmuch as I believe an enlightened public opinion to be the most effective safeguard for the preservation and maintenance of such a charitable fund and the best guide to its effective use," it is said, "I direct that at least once a year the trustees shall cause to be published in most, if not all of the daily newspapers of general circulation in Boston, a full and comprehensive report, duly audited, and signed and sworn to by at least three of their number setting forth the receipts, disbursements and investments of the fund and a copy of the 14th article of my will establishing it."

Besides the other gift, the Museum of Fine Arts is to receive an additional $100,000. Another gift is the establishment of a fund of $25,000, the income of which will be used to aid the deserving poor in the town of Acton.

Lack Of Fear In Animals

Some interesting reflections upon animal behavior are made by Robert Cushman Murphy, writing in the Brooklyn Museum Quarterly upon fishing methods in Peru.

Owing to the abundance of Peruvian marine fishes, which travel in dense schools, the fisga or gig (fish spear) is often an effective instrument in the hands of the fishermen. In late afternon at the Chincha Islands, when the guano workmen had ceased their toil and the day wind had died down, the Indians used to congregate upon the mole of the Central Island for the purpose of striking gigs into masses of fish which oscillated in the swells below. I remember many quiet October evenings in 1919 when, during the hour before sunset, vast shoals, composed mostly of four species—herrings, mackerels, cojmobas and scads—filled the shallow water near the shores of the Chinchas. It was necessary only to wait until well bunched groups had gathered below and then to hurl the Neptunic fisga. When it was drawn out by its lanyard the steel fork would usually have two or three, or sometimes more, silvery fish transfixed by the prongs. While some of the Indians were cheerily casting the gig others were scarcely less successful with a curious contrivance consisting merely of a weighted line with many hooks attached to it at intervals of a few inches. The line would be lowered gently to the bottom; at the opportune moment it would be jerked upward through the concentrated fishes, hooking them at random by their bellies, fins, snouts or tails.

In the course of such fish spearing and fish yanking as I have just described it often interested me to note the psychological reaction of the victims to the death-dealing instruments. When the gig was darted into the water the creatures in its path would, of course, scatter in all directions, leaving one or more of their number impaled; but with scarcely less alacrity those which had escaped would resume their accustomed quiescence. The fisga in short, made but a transitory impression upon whatever consciousness fishes may be possessed of; their protective reactions were apparently reflexes accompanied by only the most fleeting sensory impulses. On the evening of Oct. 14, at the Chinchas, I had an opportunity to extend observations of this nature when a natural enemy of the fishes rather than the artificial gig was the stimulus. While the fish, chiefly herrings (Sardinella sagax), were massed in the calm, transparent water beneath the dock a sea lion appeared and glided about directly below us, making a clear path over and over again through the schools. As the lobo bore swiftly down upon the fishes the latter would dart aside as if terror-stricken, but, astonishing as it may seem, they became quiet no less abruptly the instant that the enemy had passed, and they showed not the slightest tendency toward deserting the locality. To those who wax sentimental over the universal cruelty of nature the scene would have been a convincing object lesson. Ruthlessness in nature is not necessarily cruel.

It is clear that the herrings in the Chincha strait, although from one point of view intended by nature to furnish the subsistence of the sea lion, did not live in fear of their relentless persecutor. Casual reflection would, of course, convince a reasonable person that such a psychosis would be incompatible with the well-being, and consequently with the existence, of any organism, but the opposite of this opinion is widely and loosely held. It is equally clear that those fishes which had achieved the most hair-breadth escapes from the lobo cherished no unpleasant memories of their danger, not even for the briefest period, and that, as individuals, they acquired no profit by their experience other than their momentary safety. Life and death to them meant nothing, escape represented only the fortuitous and instinctive functioning of a reflex produced by an external stimulus (i. e., the seal). Time and time again, while I looked on from a distance of ten feet, the torpedo-like lobo shot among the fish and took toll. The reaction, both individual and collective, was invariably the same—a violent spurt which carried the fish a yard or two ahead, and then a prompt return to lethargy.

British Womens' Association

GENERAL NEWS

New members who have joined since our last announcement five days ago include Mrs. H. C. Anthony, Mrs. Main Austin, Mrs. Evan Bridges, Miss Mary M. Brooks, Mrs. G. W. Chandler, Miss Annie Davidge, Miss E. Duffell, Miss Doreen Holgate, Madame May Kelvey, Miss Dorothy Kelvey, Mrs. H. F. Landers, Mrs. J. S. McGavin, Mrs. A. G. Rendall, and Mrs. G. M. Stock.

HON: TREASURER

Miss M. C. Cardwell has been appointed Honorary Treasurer of the Association and those members who have not already done so are asked to facilitate her work by sending in their subscriptions promptly. It may here be remarked that those who have joined the B. W. A. will be regarded as members and be liable for their subscriptions until their resignations are recorded.

THE READING ROOM

At the risk of becoming monotonous, it may be again mentioned that certain furniture to replace that that has to be returned to people who lent it is needed for headquarters. If any member would care to give a suite of dining room furniture (minus the sideboard, preferably) during her absence from China, it would fill gaps left in the reading room. Two or three tea tables and some more chairs are also wanted for the tea room. It may be noted that these suggestions are made in view of the fact that furniture has been frequently offered by members and that hitherto there has not been room for it. Two or three table fans are also greatly needed and perhaps members going away for the summer would bear this in mind.

DR. FEARN'S TIFFIN PARTY

The event of the week has been the delightful Anglo-American tiffin party given by the President-Elect of the American Woman's Club to the Executive Committee and officers of the A. W. C. and the B. W. A. it is no exaggeration to say that this was one of the most delightful and inspiring occasions that has been recorded either in the club's or association's annals. The association is deeply appreciative of this hospitality and all that it stands for.

THE UNION JACK CLUB

A cordial letter of thanks has been received from Mr. Stitt in his capacity of chairman of the Union Jack Club for $200 which, as part result of Captain Evans' Antartic lecture, was sent by the Dramatic Section "In Memory of Sir Ernest Shackleton". The other half of the proceeds was given to the Hospitals Aid Department of the Social Board.

SOCIAL SERVICE BOARD

It has been suggested to the Social Service Board that their statement of accounts should be published in the press but members are reminded that the statement for last year was read in detail at the annual general meeting although at that time there was not a great deal to record. Statements will, of course, be published at regular intervals and meanwhile it may be remembered that the whole essence of certain charity is that it should not be bruited abroad too much.

achievements at the Flower Show last week. At very short notice there was a splendid response and the result is, thanks to the generosity of the chairman of the section. Mrs. Craddock, that a framed diploma and a silver cup will find a home at headquarters. Mrs. T. H. Clark and Mrs. Ryde should have great credit in connection with that really lovely exhibit, "An Old English Garden". The Horticultural Society's share in all this is very much appreciated.

DRAMATIC SECTION

Mrs. Jory and all who were associated with her have earned not only our congratulations but our gratitude for the admirable manner in which they presented "Purse Strings" on Monday and Tuesday. We had ventured to forecast that all the worry and trouble to which they were in changing the local at the eleventh hour would only serve them in the end, and there is no doubt that the splendid efforts that were put forth were crowned with success.

MRS. RAVEN'S GARDEN PARTY

The garden party to be given at Mrs. Raven's house by the American Woman's Club and to which the chairman and executive committee of the B. W. A. had been invited is postponed until June 10th.

NEEDLEWORK SECTION

A statement of the sections sale of work accounts has just been received and shows a clear profit of $305.37. This first effort on the part of the youngest section seems to have been a great success.

The board has just been the recipient of a handsome donation of $1,500 from the Race Club, to which Shanghai charities owe an over increasing debt of gratitude.

A GARDEN PARTY

Rumor has it that a garden party on a large scale may possibly be arranged to bring the first quarter of the association's year to a close.

GARDENING SECTION

Cordial congratulations on behalf of the association are offered to the chairman and members of the Gardening Section on their

Kao, New Railway Chief, Deaf To Pleas Of Ousted 'Advisers'

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 31.—A mandate today appoints Mr. Fu Tseng-hsiang Director of the Financial Reorganisation Bureau and Mr. Hsueh Teh-ti Director of the Honan Finance Bureau.

According to Opposition rumors, Mr. Kao Eng-hung has replaced the officials ousted from the Ministry of Communications by Shantungese and has cancelled the dismissals of several influential persons who have brought pressure to bear on him.

Interviewed this morning, officials of the Ministry of Communications hotly denied the rumors, and stated that Mr. Kao Eng-hung has not retracted in a single instance, quoting the case of Mr. Hsu Shih-jang, the President's cousin, as an example. Mr. Kao Eng-hung deprived Mr. Hsu of the posts of Director-General of the Tientsin-Pukow and Sinyang-Pukow Railways.

Although representations were made to him by apparently disinterested persons, the dismissal stands. Other inquiries confirmed this statement and tend to show that Mr. Kao Eng-hung is cutting out sinecures regardless of personalities.

Mr. Yun Pao-huei has been appointed Chief Secretary of the Cabinet. Mr. Yun was Chief Secretary under President Li Yuang-hung in 1917.

The Government received an advance of $1,450,000 from the banks to tide over the Dragon Festival.

Prospective Shortage Of Cotton Sends Prices Up

(Reuter's Service)

New York, May 5.—This week's cotton market has furnished evidence of what many believe will be the character of markets all through the summer. It was pointed out that if such violent upturns as have occurred in the last few days resulted from a little unfavorable crop news at this early stage of the game, when there remains time for much of the damage to be repaired, what will happen later in the season if boll weevil or weather makes a short crop certain. Undoubtedly part of the sensational rise this week was connected with the recent Commerce Department statement that cotton consumption is back to pre-war normal, and its estimate that the season's consumption by the world will be 21,000,000 bales. The indicated consumption of American cotton for the season is 12,014,000 bales, and the world's carry-over August 1 next, 7,900,000 bales, of which 4,291,000 bales will be American. These figures only confirmed the impression that has prevailed in many quarters to the effect that unless the coming crop is twelve millions or more, the world will face a cotton shortage and prices inevitable will be much higher.

The issuance of an acreage estimate today by a prominent Southern authority making only 2.6 percent increase led a Western market specialist to predict that cotton would go to thirty cents. Most of the other estimates by conservative houses have suggested about 15 percent increase, but these were compiled before the recent rains and floods reduced prospects in much of the Southwest. It was explained that one reason for the market's violent response to bad weather this week was the fact that so many big houses had been tempted by the larger acreage prospects recently to extend short accounts much further than would ordinarily have been the case. While a good deal of the buying represented new outside speculative purchases through commission houses, several big short lines were covered, one involving about 50,000 bales for South Atlantic interests who for some time past had been selling steadily on the favorable weather and planting prospects.

The Texas travellor of a big local spot house wrote this week: "I don't like to give reports that would cause you to think that Texas cannot make a full crop, for it is still possible, but every day now that the crop is not planted, is against the crop. My estimate for Texas Acreage was for between 5 and 10 percent increase, and the Southwest, where we were expecting a large increase in acreage, quite a good percentage never came up and only in the West and Southwest will there be any new lands. The rains will be of wonderful help to Western Texas where they can still plant and not be late." This writer expects the first Texas bale by June 15, and thinks there should be some cotton picked by the last half of July. Reports from the Eastern part of the belt have complained of rains and cool nights, and unfavorable conditions generally except in Southern Georgia. One authority figures that the consumption of fertiliser to the end of February was 86 percent of that for the like period of last season, to the end of March 93 percent and to the end of April 108.2 percent showing a tendency towards an increase as the season advances.

Reports from the cotton goods division of the market have shown a notable increase of strength and activity and a more optimistic feeling generally. It seemed to be the opinion in the trade that if cotton holds a big business will be done as stocks among jobbers and retailers are small, reflecting recent impressions that raw cotton would go lower. While no change has occurred in either the textile or coal strike situations, there seems to be more disposition among both mill interests and employes in New England to get together and seek a solution of the trouble. The operators, however, insist that unless wages are reduced somewhat they will be unable to compete with Southern mills. Already there has been more interest shown in spot cotton at Memphis from Eastern mills, while Southern mills are buying with considerable freedom in the Memphis territory. Liverpool has also been a buyer. One group of Georgia mills has bought approximately 3,000 bales of low to strict low middling cotton in 1-1/16 inch staple, running in color from light grey to bright. The price paid ranged from 16 to 18-½ cents according to color, condition and grade. In other sections of the South a better enquiry has also been noted, but without much increase of actual business thus far.

A Del Monte Special Is Not "Special" For Nothing

Which is to say that An Artiste has to be really Special before Del Monte bills her as a "Del Monte Special" is nothing if not Special. She used to be with the Imperial Ballet, Petrograd and Moscow, and that—well, nuf sed.

Mlle. Inez—

Mother Of Heiress Trying To Prevent Marriage To Swiss

(China Press Service)

Chicago, May 31.—Mrs. Edith McCormick has petitioned the probate court to prevent the marriage of her daughter Mathilde to Max Oser the Swiss riding master.

Mathilde is only seventeen and Oser is more than twice her age.

The hearing on the McCormick petition was adjourned until Saturday.

The Court had issued letters of guardianship to Mathilde's father, Harold F. McCormick, who is divorced from her mother, on condition that he would not give his consent to the marriage with Oser before Saturday.
